

2016 FCAP Lecture

The Funeral Consumers Alliance of Princeton presents

“Green Burial – A Return to Tradition”

A talk by

Mark Harris

Sunday, April 10

2:00 p.m.

at the Erdman Center

Princeton Theological Seminary

20 Library Place, Princeton

(free parking in lot)

Free & open to the public

▲ Why do we need to understand the funeral industry?

▲ Home funerals, green burials--how do they work?

▲ Do cremation and burial have environmental issues?

- Mark Harris:
- ▶ Recognized authority on the green burial movement and the modern funeral industry
  - ▶ Author of acclaimed book, “Grave Matters”
  - ▶ Former environmental columnist, Los Angeles Times Syndicate

Sponsored by FCAP, the Funeral Consumers Alliance of Princeton, a not-for-profit, all-volunteer, educational organization whose mission is to promote informed advance planning for funeral and memorial arrangements.

www.fcaprinceton.org    phone: 609-924-3320    email: info@fcaprinceton.org